

ment to the prevention of bed bugs! It proved to be both an educational and fun evening for all. We hope to do more in the future to better community relations.—CAROL McVEIGH.

INDIANA—"Do your part for ecology: recycle," is a trademark of the I. U. Thetas this year. Since September 1971 the chapter has been contributing in the recycling campaign sponsored by the Beta Theta Pi on the I. U. campus. An empty five gallon ice cream container has been added to each room in the house for all those recyclable papers that used to be burned. Space has also been provided for saving newspapers, magazines and empty cans and bottles that are to be recycled. Collection of these used but still usable materials is made about once every two weeks.—KATHY SCHRICKER.

Ways With Money

COLORADO COLLEGE—Right before Christmas the famed "monster" made its annual appearance. Once again, actives and Colorado Springs alumnae gathered at the Theta Lodge for the big Christmas auction, each member bringing a beautifully wrapped gift. Some went home feeling lucky with lovely items, but another Theta wasn't so fortunate. When she opened the gift for which she had topped the bidding it was the ugliest hunk of junk jewelry we'd seen since last year when someone else "won" it. But it's really not a loss; all the proceeds went to the Institute of Logopedics. We can hardly wait until the monster turns up again next December!—PATTY HUGHES.

DENISON—Getting in the Christmas spirit was not hard in 1971. Our December 4th bazaar earned close to $200 for the Institute of Logopedics. Actives and pledges made or contributed several items; their candles and macramé belts sold especially well. Perhaps this was due to an earlier workshop where sisters with candle and belt-making abilities shared their talents with others. Those who participated enjoyed a learning experience and through the bazaar we all enjoyed a sharing experience, expressing so well the spirit of Christmas.—JUDY MELOY.

TEXAS—Want a recipe for Swiss Cheese Dressing (simple to prepare and fabulous to the taste)? Want to try Colonel Clay's Easy Cake? Or nibble on a Crab Imperial Casserole? The 53 pages in the Alpha Theta Kite Kitchen cookbook contain these recipes and many others—most furnished by the Theta house house-mother, Mrs. Drucilla Whiting—and sold to raise money for our chapter's philanthropy projects. It's an easy sort of book to assemble and sell. Try it in your own chapter!

Panhellenic Projects

PURDUE—A new program, Sister Swap, originated in a Panhellenic fall workshop, where it was decided that a step toward getting together would be by living together. Three Thetas, along with three girls from each of the other 14 Purdue sororities, then volunteered for Sister Swap. During the two-day program, guests carried on normal school activities but under a different address and with new people. Later, an evaluation meeting showed that Sister Swap has helped break down stereotypes and has provided an exchange of ideas. Likewise, all of us in the Greek system now realize we are striving for the same goals.—CAROL LAND.

WISCONSIN—Together with other campus Greeks, the Thetas have joined a program entitled Friends. Its purpose is to help underprivileged children in the area and has enabled each interested Theta to act as a big sister to a less fortunate child.—PATTY MORRIS.

Pledges Are People, Too

HANOVER—Thetas of Nu are working to make our pledges feel at home in the chapter. Each pledge is given a home room with girls in the house to which they can go whenever they want to visit or study. Also, the half hour between the weekly chapter meeting and pledge meeting is used as a coffee hour to socialize with the pledges. By giving the pledges activities to do as a class and encouraging them to come to the house often, Thetas at Hanover hope to create unity within the pledge class and between pledges and actives.—FRITZI CAPP.

OREGON—The newly initiated members of Alpha Xi chapter of Theta climaxed their term as pledges with a beach retreat on a January weekend. An isolated cabin near Florence, Oregon provided opportunities for both serious discussion of fraternity goals and enjoyment of the winter seascape. The first evening the live-in pledges contrasted their living experiences with those of the pledges still living out. An informal visit with the chapter officers brought another dimension to the pledges' ideas. On their return, the pledges presented the actives with a poster depicting their impressions of the weekend. This living and talking together as a fraternity, in a different and natural setting, seemed to encourage deeper friendships and a true understanding of group living.—MARTHA MANGAN.

Thetas Together

MINNESOTA—Although Theta families hear much about chapter events at the Theta house, they haven't always felt a part of their daughters' college life. Happily, the Theta Mothers' Club, inactive at Minnesota for two years, has been reactivated. Under the direction of Mrs. Charlene Wikman, Theta families joined forces in January for a family buffet. Over 125 people gathered to enjoy baked ham, our collegiate skit and to discuss their daughters' common interest, Theta. A mothers' craft day, held in the fall, brought Thetas and moms together to share knowledge of bridge, macramé and needlepoint. Because of these successes, the Spring Bridge Luncheon was eagerly looked forward to.—ANN BULGER.

MISSOURI—Thetas at Missouri have had four firesides so far this year. Some of them have been seasonal, such as at Thanksgiving and Christmas, but in general a fireside is a time when all Thetas, both actives and pledges, give up a little of their time just to be together. Sometimes the firesides are directed toward appreciation of the sisters and other times we talk about problems we run into at school. No matter what the objectives of our firesides, they always unify the house in love, friendship and sisterhood.—BARBARA E. EDWARDS.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA—In the spring of '71 Omicron Thetas invited the Beta Xi Thetas at the University of California at Los Angeles over for brunch. We all had a great time singing, discussing various programs and getting to know one another. Our football teams may be mortal enemies, but we found a great deal of Theta love and warmth in our cross-town sisters. We are definitely planning another get-together very soon!—BECKY CARVER.

VANDERBILT—In an effort to get to know one another better and to explore the potential of our group, our chapter decided to have a "getting to know you better" program. The chapter was divided into groups of ten. Each girl was asked to write on a slip of paper something confidential. The anonymous slips were collected, read to the group and discussed from the standpoint of trust. Each comment was graphed on a scale ranging from public to private information. From this a discussion of the trust in the chapter evolved and how it could be strengthened. In turn, all areas of fraternity life were discussed. The leaders of each group reported that the response was tremendous in each. The entire chapter then rehashed the experience together and all admitted that we definitely had a chapter to be proud of.—SALLIE PROCTOR.

It Is Better to Give

DRAKE—Beta Kappa chapter is reaching out for new and different action this school year. A feeling of sharing happiness hit in the fall when the chapter "adopted" a mentally retarded teen-age girl. She has been given big sisters and continues to visit the Theta house, sharing Theta fun including Greek Week activities and a Christmas party for the pledges.—NAN WILLIAMS.

MIAMI—Adventures in Movement for the Handicapped is the "AIM" of Gamma Upsilon Thetas. Through Mrs. Jo Mills, our Dayton alumnae liaison, we learned that AIM volunteers are needed to work with the more than 1200 blind, deaf, cerebral palsied and retarded children in the Dayton, Ohio area. So, at our Saturday morning breakfasts we combine doughnuts-and-coffee with craft sessions to make toys that have therapeutic value. For example, wood scraps painted in bright reds, yellows and blues teach children colors and matching skills. Sounds are learned through musical "instruments" we make from pie plates and bean bags. A visit to AIM facilities in Dayton, a field trip to a local farm and a tour of Miami's campus are planned for Theta volunteers and the children.—ANDREA NAVERSEN.

NORTH CAROLINA—UNC Thetas tried to make holiday cheer a little cheerier for a family of 12 in the Chapel Hill area. We have tried to help this family, whose head is disabled, by providing food for Thanksgiving, and food, toys and warm clothing for Christmas.—PAM PHILLIPS.

GRAND PRESIDENT'S REPORT—1970-1972

◆ A duty of the Grand President is to "Keep the fraternity alert to its responsibilities in the educational world in accordance with the purpose of the fraternity."

Here is my report to you, and I know that after reviewing it you will share with me my conviction that Kappa Alpha Theta is a great fraternity. Yet, as I embarked upon my second term as your Grand President, I will confess to a certain uneasiness as to what the future would bring. Now, two years later, I can report to you that I believe sincerely that the "crisis" has passed, and that going through it has resulted in a strengthening of not only our fraternity, but of the Greek system.

The composite picture of Kappa Alpha Theta 1970-72 is one of growth and stability. The fraternity's conservative extension policy has resulted in three fine new chapters and an enthusiastic colony—Delta Sigma at Ball State University, Delta Tau at Montana State University and Delta Upsilon at Eastern Kentucky University, with Delta Phi colony established at Clemson University. During this period, Gamma Zeta chapter at Connecticut succumbed to campus and administrative pressures and a Trustee ruling banning selective housing.

Also during this period, five new alumnae chapters have been chartered: Colorado Springs, Louisville, Boulder, San Fernando Valley and El Paso. Statistically our profile is as follows: 84,565 initiated members; 95 college chapters; 1 colony; 87 alumnae chapters; 227 alumnae clubs. During the first year of the biennium, 2,528 new members were initiated and as of March 8, 1972, 2,231 new members have been added—and several chapters have yet to initiate.

Much time and effort have been expended during the biennium by many to evaluate, update and streamline programs and procedures. I have had the pleasure of working each year with my President's Advisory Committee—one college chapter president from each of the 18 districts. Their ideas, suggestions and evaluations of proposed programs have been invaluable. A complete and thorough review of fraternity ritual was undertaken, by Grand Council action to be effective in the fall. It was interesting to learn that collegiate members wanted few changes, in some cases requesting the lengthening of services. With the advent of the changes in college regulations regarding alcohol, the Council last fall revised the alcoholic beverages policy of the fraternity to allow for chapter service of alcohol at social occasions where it would be compatible with state laws, college regulations and Theta standards of responsibility and good taste. The THETA MAGAZINE has, during the biennium, won several state and national awards.

The Council is proposing to the 1972 Convention a new system of districting which will provide greater flexibility and equalization of work loads, and is also proposing a reduction in the number of members-at-large on Council. This latter will allow, without an increase in cost, the assignment of specific professional or semi-professional duties to members who will not be subject to Council tenure provisions.

One of the greatest achievements during the past two years has been the conversion of membership records to data processing at Central Office. Greater accuracy and an increase in services are the major benefits.

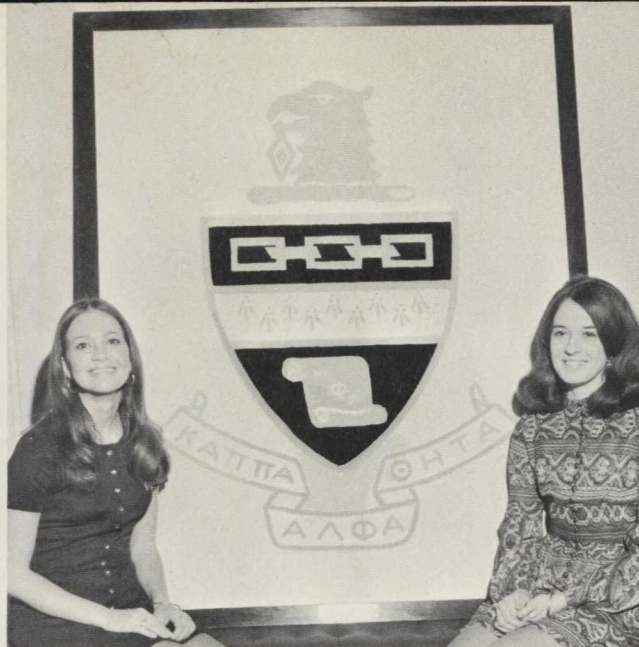

Campus trends have been carefully monitored. On many campuses there has been a decline in the number of rushees entering rush, but the percentage of women pledged has been increased. The percentage of members pledged in open rush periods has increased as the trend toward less structured rush continues, with the natural result that pledge education has become more flexible. The new pledge book, Theta For a Lifetime, has been enthusiastically received and the newly revised College Chapter Handbook has proved helpful to chapter officers.

Internal Revenue Service directives that only dues and fees may be used for operating expenses of fraternities has resulted in a very tight budget and a restricted Council chapter visiting schedule, but there has been no decrease in member services. Inflationary trends have also been met successfully. The traveling secretary program has been maintained and expanded.

Based on these facts and with the support of the many Thetas giving unselfishly to our college and alumnae programs, it is my belief that Theta is indeed assuming its responsibilities in the educational, as well as in the fraternity world.—

NORMA A. JORGENSEN.

NEW: EASTERN KENTUCKY

by MARGARET A. SELLERS BENEDICT
Alpha Gamma, Ohio State

◆ Delta Upsilon chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta was installed March 4, 1972 at Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky.

The president of the colony was Daryl Poynter, Florence, Kentucky. Counselor for the new chapter is Miss Becky Strief, Dallas, Texas, a graduate student from Theta's Vanderbilt, Alpha Eta chapter. Becky acted as head marshal during the ceremonies.

The installation ceremonies which ran from March 2 through March 5 included a Loyalty Service in the chapel of Richmond's First Christian Church, Thursday, March 2.

Initiation of the college chapter Friday and Saturday, March 3-4, was held in the church's Fellowship Hall followed by a banquet and charter service Saturday night in the Powell Building, newly erected student center at EKU. The guest speaker at the banquet was Dr. Thomas Meyers, University Vice-President of Student Affairs (see page 5). A huge Theta crest was made and given to the new sorority by Bob Eckel, Theta's sweetheart, who also, as IFC president, presented a gift to Theta from the EKU men's fraternities.

A model Theta meeting was conducted Sunday morning at the Holiday Inn. The group then attended services at the First Christian Church and later that afternoon new members and their parents, installing officers and alumnae from central Kentucky were entertained at a tea and campus reception at University Center.

Local alumnae who did early planning and who officiated were Mrs. Shirley Park Deane, Richmond, Ky., Gamma Iota, Kentucky, the new chapter's Advisory Board chairman; Mrs. Margaret A. Sellers Benedict, Irvine, Ky., Alpha Gamma, Ohio State; and Mrs. Becky Barlow Lewis, Winchester, Ky., Gamma Iota. Assisting Theta chapter was Gamma Iota at the University of Kentucky whose members were much in evidence.

Installing officers were Grand President Mrs. Albert N. Jorgensen, Jr.; Grand Vice-President of Alumnae, Mrs. James W. Metzger; Grand Council Installation Chairman Mrs. Judson E. Pratt; and Council Member-at-large Mrs. George T. Tarbutton.

Also assisting were Mrs. Charles J. Bryan, College District President, District XI; Mrs.

Rex Kurtz, Alumnae District President; Mrs. Robert L. White, Grand Vice-President, Service Program; and two of the staff from the Kappa Alpha Theta Central office in Evanston, Ill., Mrs. James McAdams, Assistant Associate Executive Secretary; Mrs. R. M. Nilson, Associate Executive Secretary. Also attending was Miss Elizabeth Cavin, Traveling Secretary.

Fifty-three active members and ten alumnae of Kappa Phi Delta, an EKU local sorority organized in 1968, together with six Richmond, Ky. townswomen were initiated.

Active members include these members from the state of Kentucky: Mary Stevens, Arizona; Barbara Bracken and Patricia Calico, Berea; Marty Nicholson, Brandenburg; Donna Holland, Campbellsville; Deborah Hartman, Covington; Donna McGinnis, Danville; Barbara Gibson, Diane Hahlen, Pamela Judd, Karen Kranz, Erlanger; Connie Freking, Daryl Poynter, Claudia Roberts, Jacquelyn Thompson, Florence.

The six alumnae townswomen who were initiated are Nancy Daniel, Mrs. Marthalyn Jo Halliday Feltner, Mrs. Adrianna Hayes Francis, Glynna J. Hays, Mrs. Margaret Britton Kolloff, Mrs. Wanda Johnson Ramsey, all of Richmond, Ky.

The new chapter is the seventh national sorority to be established on the campus of EKU. There are also eleven fraternities.

The University is a coeducational public institution of higher education offering general and liberal arts programs, pre-professional and professional training in education and various other fields at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Located in Richmond, Madison County, Ky., Eastern has a distinguished record of more than six decades of educational service to the Commonwealth. The institution is recognized as one of the nation's leading producers of teachers with over seventy percent of its 20,000 graduates having entered the teaching profession.

Richmond, the county seat of Madison County, is an expanding community of approximately 15,000 population. In and around Richmond are many areas of historic and scenic interest. Recreational areas are many. Boonesborough State Park, birthplace of Kentucky, is located 12 miles to the north. Richmond, the Bluegrass region of Ky., is noted for its horse farms.

Eastern Kentucky University has increased rapidly in size and stature. Beginning with a few students engaged in short review and certificate courses in 1906, the University today serves thousands of Kentucky's young men and women by offering a curriculum leading to the Bachelor of Science degree in teacher education, or in general or professional areas, and an expanding graduate program.

WHAT SHALL THE GREEK MESSAGE BE?

DR. THOMAS MEYERS

*Vice-President of Student Affairs
Eastern Kentucky University*

Banquet Speech, Theta's EKU chapter installation

I've heard it said that the fraternity system is in trouble, but I am amazed at how many of the same people making these statements are non-Greeks or don't have a Greek system on their campus. I contend that the Greek system is deeply ingrained in the American education system and is here to stay. However, we are going through a period of accountability in higher education. It is a period in our history when we take stock of ourselves to justify our existence.

What can sororities do? My answer is a comprehensive one, and one starting with something more basic than rush parties. First of all, each member must believe that the sorority is answering her needs and must show it in word and action. Members need to show satisfaction with their chapter, real friendship with one another and cooperation within the group. Friendliness also includes friendship with other students, with other Greeks and active participation in other campus organizations.

Then comes rush. Be alert for better rush techniques. The college student today is mature, intelligent, and serious-minded. This "new student" will no longer tolerate great interest in money background, father's occupation and time-wasting nonsense conversation at parties. This student wants sincere human relationships.

A good pledge program is the next necessity. To be successful it has to show the pledges that sorority life gives the friendship, help with scholarship and the activity program it promised. It has to show that "required" activities are beneficial and useful and that there is still time to maintain individuality. Above all, it has to show that everyone in the sorority can work together.

Scholarship is an area which concerns me. The sororities on our campus are consistently ranked above the grade-point average of our total student body standings. However, sororities must continue to see that grades of actives and pledges are improved—not hurt—because of membership.

Overall, the problems of the Greek system are similar to the marketing problems confronting modern business. We have a product to sell, and we have potential buyers. We have as our goal to sell the Greek system to these potential buyers: the student body, the administration, the faculty. In order to market the product, we must create a good Greek image.

In order to sell the good points of Greek affiliation, the sorority girl must do so without implying that everyone must "be a Greek." Pride in affiliation and its attributes will demonstrate that this girl is pleased with this positive experience in life.

The final element in the communications process is the message. What shall the Greek message be? "We Greeks are worth the investment of the University's and community's time and money in us. We are worth the investment because we make a positive contribution in the areas of scholarship and service to the academic and municipal communities."

This, then, is the message. The inertia of past accomplishments and the fragmentation of past rivalries cannot be permitted any longer. The message of scholarship and service with a united and confident voice must emanate from the bonds of sisterhood.

THETA ON THE MOVE

◆ Theta came to South Carolina on March 1, 1972 with the pledging of Delta Phi colony at Clemson University, Clemson, S.C.

Twenty-six undergraduates and four alumnae were invited to membership after interviews conducted by Lucile Moore Garrett, director of membership selection, and Martha Smith White, grand vice-president, service. Also assisting were Dorothy Whitehurst Heard, grand vice-president, finance; Gratia Clancy Wiley, college president, District XVII; Michelle Trahan, traveling secretary; and nine members of Gamma Delta chapter at the University of Georgia.

National sororities are new to Clemson. Three locals which had been in existence for a few years affiliated with Chi Omega, Tri Delta and Kappa Kappa Gamma in 1969 and 1970. There are ten national fraternities for men on the campus. Originally Clemson, founded in 1889 as a land grant institution, was an agricultural college for men only. The name was changed to Clemson University in 1964.

Housing for fraternity members—both men and women—is in University dormitories. Theta also has a "social room" for its own, as do the other three sororities, furnished by the University for their use.

Delta Phi colony, with help from Theta's Grand Council and active members of nearby chapters, will participate in formal rush this coming August. Since this will be our first chapter in South Carolina, it is hoped that alumnae will make a special effort to send recommendations on well qualified girls who will make good prospective members. The name of the Rush Adviser will be found on page 17 in the colored section of this magazine.

This colony will be installed as Delta Phi chapter of Theta sometime in November.

For perhaps the first time in Theta history, a mother and daughter will both be charter members of a chapter. Mrs. George Hill and her daughter Barbie, both of Clemson, are pledges of the colony. Other alumnae pledges include Mrs. Marvin C. Ellison, Mrs. William A. McDonough and Mrs. T. K. Moore.

STRAIGHT "A" THETAS

Education is the apprenticeship of life—WILLMOTT.

A silver scholarship charm (note pic) was awarded to each Theta whose name is starred who made an "A" record for the entire 1970-71 school year. Others made straight "A" for a semester or two consecutive terms.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE OF RUSH RECOMMENDATION DIRECTORY

IN GENERAL—Rush is rapidly changing, is more informal, unstructured. Because rush registration is not held on many campuses, interested girls may not be known. Therefore, remember alumnae help is needed in order for our chapters to maintain their high caliber of membership.

The Rush Directory lists Rush Recommendation Boards by state. It also contains a list of college chapter rush chairmen and rush advisers, names and addresses of State and Province Chairmen and Alumnae District Presidents. As available, lists of Authorized Rush Representatives will be sent to college rush chairmen and to Rush Recommendation Boards, if requested.

ALUMNAE—Send your recommendations on authorized white rush blank or the printed form on page 9 with attached letter to the Rush Recommendation Board serving the area in which your prospective rushee lives. If there is no Rush Recommendation Board in that area, send the completed rush blank to the college chapter rush chairman. Voluntary recommendations made by you as soon as possible are the most valuable.

COLLEGE CHAPTERS—Green sheets from Rush Boards must be accompanied by a completed white rush blank. Recommendations from Authorized Rush Representatives will be on white rush blanks with pink slip attached. All white forms from alumnae where there is no Rush Board are legal.

If you must solicit a recommendation for a rushee, a request should be directed to the person listed for her town in the Directory or in the mimeographed listing of Authorized Rush Representatives which the chapter has received from Central Office. If there is no one listed, use form provided in chapter supplies to request names of alumnae in the area from the State or Province Chairman. If you receive no reply in a reasonable length of time, contact the Alumnae District President through your rush adviser.

TIMING—Submit all recommendations as soon as possible. College chapters need them by August 1, and if they go to a Rush Rec Board first, time must be allowed for processing.

Complete cooperation among individual alumnae, Rush Boards and college chapters is necessary to guarantee the smooth operation of our recommendation procedures. It is the privilege of alumnae to recommend qualified rushees; it is the privilege of college chapters to select from among those recommended to them.

Rush Recommendation Directory—1972-1973

If a town is not listed, please contact the Alumnae District President of that particular district.

Good News

Collegiate editors, asked to report on Theta chapter Good News for this issue, interpreted the assignment variously. While we rejoice and congratulate all chapters on their honors and efforts, the purpose of this new department in the THETA MAGAZINE is to highlight collegiate activities particularly pertinent to the '70's. Thus, we have chosen for publication those letters which tell a story of the somewhat unusual.—EDITOR.

Alumnæ Relations

BUTLER—It was a world of snow and cold outside, but "Santa's House" was a warm and friendly oasis away from the winter chill. Representing this atmosphere were the happy and glowing faces inside the gaily decorated gingerbread type house. Indianapolis Theta alumnæ, with the help of Gamma, Butler active members and pledges, were providing a world of enchantment and fantasy for young children during the 1971 holiday season. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus were present, while Thetas played the role of elves dressed in attractive costumes. We worked together strengthening the role of fraternity membership and alumnæ relations, while enjoying Christmas in Indianapolis.—JENNIFER GREAF.

CALIFORNIA-Santa Barbara—Gamma Rho Thetas at the University of California-Santa Barbara are thrilled with our "getting-to-know-you" program with our alumnæ. The alumnæ sponsored a Progressive Dinner, held at three different alumnæ homes for salad, main course and dessert. There were many alumnæ at the homes waiting to greet and talk to us and our college chapter members had a marvelous time. Our alumnæ are also calling on us for baby sitting and other odd jobs rather than finding outside help. All in all the barriers that often exist between college and alumnæ chapters are fast breaking down at Santa Barbara.—DIANE CHILD.

IOWA STATE—Founders' Day, celebrated in January at an Ames hotel, was special for us this year. The program consisted of skits, speeches and an Alumna-of-the-Year award. We never lost sight of the goal set for us by Marsha Nyenhuis, organizer of the program, who said, "It's just a time to show our appreciation for the alumnæ and the help they've given us."—ALAS, AUTHOR UNKNOWN.

UTAH—If you live in Salt Lake City and are a Theta alumna, you may be surprised one morning by active Thetas bearing fresh doughnuts. There are several Delta Lambda chapter girls who are free in the morning, so they buy doughnuts and knock at a chosen alumna's door. Using Theta ingenuity, they know she will be home. The alumna provides the coffee and it's a great way of getting to know one another. The visit is short but fun, one which all remember.—BARBARA PATEE.

Serving the College

BALL STATE—They said it couldn't be done, but the Delta Sigmas at Ball State managed to win first place honors in selling the Orient, BSU's annual yearbook, for the second consecutive year. Of course, it took a most determined leader like Kathy McClanahan to accomplish such a large feat. Kathy, along with the chapter, sold 128 yearbooks in the "Orient Daze" effort.—TERRI ELEY.

NEBRASKA—"Make Love No. 1" and "Eat Pancakes for Love," were slogans commonly heard around the University of Nebraska campus as Rho chapter of Theta, along with a fraternity, planned a money-making supper to raise funds for Love Library. With girls working from 8:00 A.M. the morning of the supper until after 11:00 P.M. that evening, over $1,800 was made for the library. The arts of cooking, scrubbing, pouring coffee and, of course, flipping pancakes, were added to Rho's many talents that day. Ask any Rho Theta; that was a lot of pancakes!—TAMMI HATHAWAY.

TEXAS TECH—Recently four Tech students were critically injured in a car wreck near Ruidosa, New Mexico. A fifth student—a girl—was killed. One of the critically hurt boys has been having a particularly bad time, needing so many blood transfusions that his bill from the Blood Bank has become prohibitively high. In order to cut down his costs, members of Gamma Phi have donated blood at the Bank and placed the $5.00 each Theta received for her blood into a fund toward the Blood Bank bills the boy is owing.—CHRISTY SHELTON.

Collegiates and Community

DEPAUW—This year the Alpha Thetas set out to improve relations between the community of Greencastle and the University students. In November 1971 a banquet was held for the Greencastle firemen and policemen. At least one guest sat at each table and the conversation ranged from the latest in fire-fighting equipment to the prevention of bed bugs! It proved to be both an educational and fun evening for all. We hope to do more in the future to better community relations.—CAROL McVEIGH.

INDIANA—"Do your part for ecology: recycle," is a trademark of the I. U. Thetas this year. Since September 1971 the chapter has been contributing in the recycling campaign sponsored by the Beta Theta Pi on the I. U. campus. An empty five gallon ice cream container has been added to each room in the house for all those recyclable papers that used to be burned. Space has also been provided for saving newspapers, magazines and empty cans and bottles that are to be recycled. Collection of these used but still usable materials is made about once every two weeks.—KATHY SCHRICKER.

Ways With Money

COLORADO COLLEGE—Right before Christmas the famed "monster" made its annual appearance. Once again, actives and Colorado Springs alumnae gathered at the Theta Lodge for the big Christmas auction, each member bringing a beautifully wrapped gift. Some went home feeling lucky with lovely items, but another Theta wasn't so fortunate. When she opened the gift for which she had topped the bidding it was the ugliest hunk of junk jewelry we'd seen since last year when someone else "won" it. But it's really not a loss; all the proceeds went to the Institute of Logopedics. We can hardly wait until the monster turns up again next December!—PATTY HUGHES.

DENISON—Getting in the Christmas spirit was not hard in 1971. Our December 4th bazaar earned close to $200 for the Institute of Logopedics. Actives and pledges made or contributed several items; their candles and macramé belts sold especially well. Perhaps this was due to an earlier workshop where sisters with candle and belt-making abilities shared their talents with others. Those who participated enjoyed a learning experience and through the bazaar we all enjoyed a sharing experience, expressing so well the spirit of Christmas.—JUDY MELOY.

TEXAS—Want a recipe for Swiss Cheese Dressing (simple to prepare and fabulous to the taste)? Want to try Colonel Clay's Easy Cake? Or nibble on a Crab Imperial Casserole? The 53 pages in the Alpha Theta Kite Kitchen cookbook contain these recipes and many others—most furnished by the Theta house house-mother, Mrs. Drucilla Whiting—and sold to raise money for our chapter's philanthropy projects. It's an easy sort of book to assemble and sell. Try it in your own chapter!

Panhellenic Projects

PURDUE—A new program, Sister Swap, originated in a Panhellenic fall workshop, where it was decided that a step toward getting together would be by living together. Three Thetas, along with three girls from each of the other 14 Purdue sororities, then volunteered for Sister Swap. During the two-day program, guests carried on normal school activities but under a different address and with new people. Later, an evaluation meeting showed that Sister Swap has helped break down stereotypes and has provided an exchange of ideas. Likewise, all of us in the Greek system now realize we are striving for the same goals.—CAROL LAND.

WISCONSIN—Together with other campus Greeks, the Thetas have joined a program entitled Friends. Its purpose is to help underprivileged children in the area and has enabled each interested Theta to act as a big sister to a less fortunate child.—PATTY MORRIS.

Pledges Are People, Too

HANOVER—Thetas of Nu are working to make our pledges feel at home in the chapter. Each pledge is given a home room with girls in the house to which they can go whenever they want to visit or study. Also, the half hour between the weekly chapter meeting and pledge meeting is used as a coffee hour to socialize with the pledges. By giving the pledges activities to do as a class and encouraging them to come to the house often, Thetas at Hanover hope to create unity within the pledge class and between pledges and actives.—FRITZI CAPP.

OREGON—The newly initiated members of Alpha Xi chapter of Theta climaxed their term as pledges with a beach retreat on a January weekend. An isolated cabin near Florence, Oregon provided opportunities for both serious discussion of fraternity goals and enjoyment of the winter seascape. The first evening the live-in pledges contrasted their living experiences with those of the pledges still living out. An informal visit with the chapter officers brought another dimension to the pledges' ideas. On their return, the pledges presented the actives with a poster depicting their impressions of the weekend. This living and talking together as a fraternity, in a different and natural setting, seemed to encourage deeper friendships and a true understanding of group living.—MARTHA MANGAN.

Thetas Together

MINNESOTA—Although Theta families hear much about chapter events at the Theta house, they haven't always felt a part of their daughters' college life. Happily, the Theta Mothers' Club, inactive at Minnesota for two years, has been reactivated. Under the direction of Mrs. Charlene Wikman, Theta families joined forces in January for a family buffet. Over 125 people gathered to enjoy baked ham, our collegiate skit and to discuss their daughters' common interest, Theta. A mothers' craft day, held in the fall, brought Thetas and moms together to share knowledge of bridge, macramé and needlepoint. Because of these successes, the Spring Bridge Luncheon was eagerly looked forward to.—ANN BULGER.

MISSOURI—Thetas at Missouri have had four firesides so far this year. Some of them have been seasonal, such as at Thanksgiving and Christmas, but in general a fireside is a time when all Thetas, both actives and pledges, give up a little of their time just to be together. Sometimes the firesides are directed toward appreciation of the sisters and other times we talk about problems we run into at school. No matter what the objectives of our firesides, they always unify the house in love, friendship and sisterhood.—BARBARA E. EDWARDS.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA—In the spring of '71 Omicron Thetas invited the Beta Xi Thetas at the University of California at Los Angeles over for brunch. We all had a great time singing, discussing various programs and getting to know one another. Our football teams may be mortal enemies, but we found a great deal of Theta love and warmth in our cross-town sisters. We are definitely planning another get-together very soon!—BECKY CARVER.

VANDERBILT—In an effort to get to know one another better and to explore the potential of our group, our chapter decided to have a "getting to know you better" program. The chapter was divided into groups of ten. Each girl was asked to write on a slip of paper something confidential. The anonymous slips were collected, read to the group and discussed from the standpoint of trust. Each comment was graphed on a scale ranging from public to private information. From this a discussion of the trust in the chapter evolved and how it could be strengthened. In turn, all areas of fraternity life were discussed. The leaders of each group reported that the response was tremendous in each. The entire chapter then rehashed the experience together and all admitted that we definitely had a chapter to be proud of.—SALLIE PROCTOR.

It Is Better to Give

DRAKE—Beta Kappa chapter is reaching out for new and different action this school year. A feeling of sharing happiness hit in the fall when the chapter "adopted" a mentally retarded teen-age girl. She has been given big sisters and continues to visit the Theta house, sharing Theta fun including Greek Week activities and a Christmas party for the pledges.—NAN WILLIAMS.

MIAMI—Adventures in Movement for the Handicapped is the "AIM" of Gamma Upsilon Thetas. Through Mrs. Jo Mills, our Dayton alumnae liaison, we learned that AIM volunteers are needed to work with the more than 1200 blind, deaf, cerebral palsied and retarded children in the Dayton, Ohio area. So, at our Saturday morning breakfasts we combine doughnuts-and-coffee with craft sessions to make toys that have therapeutic value. For example, wood scraps painted in bright reds, yellows and blues teach children colors and matching skills. Sounds are learned through musical "instruments" we make from pie plates and bean bags. A visit to AIM facilities in Dayton, a field trip to a local farm and a tour of Miami's campus are planned for Theta volunteers and the children.—ANDREA NAVERSEN.

NORTH CAROLINA—UNC Thetas tried to make holiday cheer a little cheerier for a family of 12 in the Chapel Hill area. We have tried to help this family, whose head is disabled, by providing food for Thanksgiving, and food, toys and warm clothing for Christmas.—PAM PHILLIPS.
